Greetings Team,

Clarke has a kiddo that is returning from YDC. He previously attended Rutland before going to YDC though his behaviors were more conduct in nature. Either way, I know he'd return here when coming back from YDC as we were the last placement prior to YDC. Mom doesn't want him to return to Rutland. I want to double check just for my own clarity. If mom decides she doesn't want him to return here, won't her parent rights override Clarke wanting him to return here? I noticed in the verbiage that one of the Clarke coordinators sent (below) that she is telling the DHS case manager that the student has to return to Rutland, yet I was thinking that if mom doesn't agree to placement, when we meet, the district has to support him in another way. Is this correct? Again, I'm seeking clarity to make sure I am adequately prepared for the meeting.

Thanks,

Ms. Celest Ngeve,
Director
Rutland Academy

Hi Ms. Brooks,

I am one of the special education coordinators for Clarke County who supports our students at Rutland. I just spoke with J [REDACTED]'s mom to let her know we have a meeting scheduled for Wednesday, October 23, at 1:00 at Rutland Academy to begin serving J [REDACTED]

As you may be aware, Mom does not want J [REDACTED] to return to Rutland. I attempted to explain to Mom that J [REDACTED] would first need to return to Rutland, but we could talk about a transition plan. Mom stated she does not mind if J [REDACTED] attends a GNETS facility, but she does not want him to attend the one here. Mom stated she would move in order for J [REDACTED] to attend a different GNETS.

Will you please touch base with Mom to determine her intentions moving forward now that she realizes J [REDACTED] will need to return to our GNETS?

I will add you to the calendar invite, but if you could reach out to me via email or one of the phone numbers below, I would appreciate it.

Thanks for your time,
Sabrina
